

The Road to Reading Success

Parents Helping Children

Presented by Donna and Steve Bengle

Brown School Library

Thursday, 12-03-09

6:30 – 8:00

Reading is one of life's most important skills. If your child is in grades 1-4 and is having trouble learning to read or struggles when reading, attend this workshop to learn:

- What current research says about reading
- Fun reading activities to do at home
- How to choose books that are at the right level for your child

Receive a free activity packet you can begin using right away. There is no cost. Just fill in the information requested and return the bottom portion to your child's teacher. For more information please contact Donna Bengle at 771-1710 or Steve Bengle at 771-1720. Please complete the registration form and return to your child's teacher.
